

What does the Bible reading tell us about love?

think, reflect, pray

Where have you experienced love or seen it displayed?

life for one's friends.

How can we love others as God intended?

Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. Read John 15: 9-17