

Prayer Calendar

October 2024

Tuesday,
1 October

God Lord of all, as Bishop's Staff meets today, we ask you to help them to be attentive to the guidance of your Holy Spirit. May all that is discussed and decided be for the building of your Kingdom.

Wednesday,
2 October

Lord of the harvest, in this harvest season, we pray for all opportunities to celebrate the wonder of your creation. We pray for those holding services in schools, churches, and communities. May all be blessed by your abundant provision.

Thursday,
3 October

Father God, as we remember George Bell, Ecumenist, we pray for Churches Together in Somerset and for all churches who pray and work together to serve our communities in your holy name.

Friday,
4 October

God of peace, on this St Francis Day, make us channels of your peace that we may live and tell your story of faith, hope, and love.

Saturday,
5 October

Loving God, we give thanks for all Readers and their varied ministry in our diocese. We pray for the Readers' day today as we come together to celebrate and learn together. We pray for those being led by you to explore Reader ministry and those supporting them.

Sunday,
6 October

God of healing, we pray for all who are living with cancer and for all who journey with them and offer care and hope: their friends and families, medical staff, and researchers. Amidst the challenges, we pray for healing, wholeness, and peace.

Monday,
7 October

Jesus, pioneer, as the Audit and Risk Management Group meets today, we pray that you will guide them in the challenging task of exploring which are the right risks for your Gospel and which might cause harm to your people.

Tuesday,
8 October

God of everywhere, we pray for chaplains across our diocese, including those who gather today to explore chaplaincy and discern if they are called to be chaplains. Bless those in this ministry and the places to which they are called.

Wednesday,
9 October

We pray for healthcare chaplains and church leaders as they work together to offer spiritual care to those who suffer in body, mind, and spirit.

---

Thursday,
10 October

God of our imaginations, on this day when we remember Thomas Traherne, poet and spiritual writer, we ask you to release our creativity in whatever form it takes so that we may connect to you from the core of our beings.

---

Friday,
11 October

Lord, revive our young people – we need you.

Wave of Prayer

---

Saturday,
12 October

As Quantock Deanery explores and celebrates music, we pray for the deanery and for all who lead music in our churches, schools, and chaplaincies.

---

Sunday,
13 October

Lord of life, as we remember King Edward the Confessor, we pray for King Charles and all who lead our nations, that they may confess the faith and work for the common good of all your people.

---

Monday,
14 October

God of celebration, we give thanks for all who are lay ministers: for lay pastoral assistants, lay worship assistants, local lay pioneers, and chaplains who generously offer their time and gifts to church and community.

---

Tuesday,
15 October

Lord of Life, as we remember Teresa of Avila, Teacher of the Faith, we pray for all those across our diocese who teach the faith through preaching, small groups, and in conversation. Guide them to embolden others to deepen their faith and follow you in their lives.

---

Weds,
16 October

Lord, we pray for all of the people that feel broken and depressed. We pray that they find and seek comfort in you and know the love you have for them.

Wave of Prayer

---

Thursday,
17 October

Generous Lord, we pray that we may reflect your generosity and share the blessings you have showered on us to the benefit of all people as we work to make poverty history.

Friday,
18 October

Luke the Evangelist

Father of all, we pray today for all who are held in bonds of slavery and whose bodies are exploited and abused. May they experience the light of freedom and be released from the burdens they carry.

---

Saturday,
19 October

Wave of Prayer

Lord Jesus, we pray that this generation and this world will come to know you and your peace. Jesus, in your name we pray.

Sunday,
20 October

Heavenly Lord, we bring ourselves before you. You know where and how we are broken and suffering. Help us to trust in the warmth and healing power of your love and to believe that the light will overcome the dark. We ask this in your mercy.

---

Monday,
21 October

Lord of holiness and joy, we praise you for the different ways you work in people's lives. We give thanks for opportunities to serve you and others through the gifts you have given us.

---

Tuesday,
22 October

Wave of Prayer

Heavenly Father, we pray for curates and their training incumbents across our diocese. We ask your blessing on them as they work together and we pray that our curates will powerfully encounter you as they grow in their ministry.

Wednesday,
23 October

Loving God, as the Taunton Archdeaconry Mission and Pastoral Group meets today, we ask you to bless them as they share stories from across the archdeaconry. Give them discernment as they seek to see how your mission is best lived out locally.

---

Thurs,
24 October

Wave of Prayer

We pray, God, that you continue to stir up and release youth and young adults to the call on their lives.

Friday,
25 October

We pray for our schools and colleges on the last day of the half term. We give thanks for all of the learning and living that has taken place and pray for rest and refreshment in the coming week.

---

Saturday,
26 October

Timeless God, as we remember Alfred, King of the West Saxons, we ask your blessing on the churches of the Alfred Jewel Benefice and all who live and work within that family of villages.

Sunday,
27 October

Lord, we pray for our services today. May our worship through words, music, and silence give glory and praise to you and so build up the body of Christ to continue Christ's mission today.

Monday,
28 October

Loving God, we pray for Local Ministers in our diocese and those exploring that ministry. Give them wisdom and joy as they offer spiritual leadership locally and bless those who offer them supportive oversight.

Simon and Jude,
Apostles

Tuesday,
29 October

God of every day and every place, help us as we seek to live out our faith wherever we are and whoever we are with. Give us courage to speak of the way you bring us life.

Wednesday,
30 October

Lord who calls us on a journey of faith, we give thanks for all those who are exploring a calling at this time. May your Holy Spirit guide them in their discernment.

Thursday,
31 October

God of our past, present, and future, on this All Hallows Eve, we give thanks for all those we have loved but see no longer. We give thanks that your love is eternal.

Bunting prayers

Throughout our Diocesan 24-hour Wave of Prayer in September, we asked people to write prayers on bunting.

We are continuing to pray with these bunting prayers and some of the prayers, marked with 'Wave of Prayer' have been included in this month's prayer calendar.
